Ashland Optimist April Board Report

On Thursday, April 8th, the Ashland Optimist Board met at 7:00 p.m. in the Optimist building. The Board voted to give six scholarships this year. The Board also voted to sign an agreement with the City of Ashland for assistance on funding the cost of the pool operation over the next three years. It was also decided that, as of June 5th, the Ashland Optimists will return to weekly breakfast meetings. There may be changes as to what is served and what the program will be, so watch for further details.

Remember that our May meeting has been changed to May 8th because of the Third Quarter Conference of the Optimist's East Missouri District, which will be held in Arnold, MO on Apr. 30-May 1st. I look forward to seeing many of you at breakfast!
