The Ashland Optimist Board met on Thursday, May 13th. The Board approved reinvesting the interest earned in the Optimist International Foundation scholarship fund again this year,. They also voted to host Fireworks for the 4th of July on our grounds, provided outside funds are raised for the event and we get permission from the Saddle Club,

The Board approved Leigh Kottwitz as a new member and decided to restart the regular Saturday meetings as of June 5th at 7:30 AM with a light breakfast until we get our breakfast teams re-established. The Board also was pleased to accept three Thank you notes for our scholarships and for all the work John Travlos puts into guiding us as we host the Oratorical Contest each year.

The pool will have an open house May 28th and open to the public on Memorial Day Weekend.
